PITCHUP MATERIALS PREPARATION GUIDE

SOLAIRE PITCHUP MATERIALS PREPARATION GUIDE

What to provide according to your project stage and route

This guide explains the information, documents and creative assets Solaire PitchUp needs from you to prepare your project package. You do not need to write the finished Solaire PitchUp presentation yourself. Provide clear, accurate source material and Solaire PitchUp will structure, edit and position the relevant information for professional presentation.

Requirements vary according to your role, the project's current stage and what you are seeking. Begin by identifying your route, then provide the core and route-dependent materials relevant to your project.

Solaire PitchUp (founder and editor) assembles your professional package from the information you provide and, for developed projects, in collaboration with the producer and finance team. You write your own pitch script. Solaire PitchUp can optionally produce the presentation or video, and creators retain authorship.

YOUR ROLE

YOUR ROLE

WHO ARE YOU IN RELATION TO THE PROJECT?

- Writer seeking a producer

You have written the screenplay and want a producer or production company to develop the project and move it towards production.

- Writer offering a screenplay for option or acquisition

You are offering rights to a producer, production company or buyer. An option gives them exclusive rights for an agreed period; an acquisition involves purchasing the relevant rights.

- Writer-producer

You are both the writer and actively developing the project as a producer.

- Producer or production company

You are developing or controlling the project as its producer.

- Other

Briefly explain your relationship to the project.

CHOOSE YOUR ROUTE

WHERE IS THE PROJECT NOW?

- Screenplay seeking a producer
- Screenplay available for option or acquisition
- Writer-producer project in development
- Producer-led project in development
- Packaged production seeking finance
- Packaged production seeking commissioning
- Production seeking sales or distribution

WHAT ARE YOU SEEKING?

- Lead producer
- Option or acquisition
- Development finance
- Production finance
- Co-producer
- Commissioner / broadcaster / streamer
- Sales agent
- Distributor

Your project status and objective determine which additional production, finance and market materials are relevant.

WHEN DO I NEED PRODUCTION MATERIALS?

The materials you need depend on who is taking responsibility for developing the production and what decision you are seeking next.

WRITER SEEKING A PRODUCER OR OPTION / ACQUISITION

You are not expected to provide a detailed production budget, shooting schedule or finance plan. Your immediate objective is to secure the producer or company that will take the screenplay into production development.

WRITER-PRODUCER / PRODUCER-LED PROJECT

As the project advances towards production, the screenplay is broken down scene by scene. The breakdown informs the shooting schedule; the schedule informs the production budget; and the budget becomes a foundation for the finance plan.

SEEKING DEVELOPMENT FINANCE

A complete production schedule and budget may not yet be required. Development finance may be used to advance the project towards detailed production planning, packaging, budgeting and finance readiness.

SEEKING PRODUCTION FINANCE

A credible shooting schedule and production budget will normally be required so that financiers can understand how the production will be delivered and how its costs have been calculated.

THE PRODUCTION PLANNING ORDER

SCREENPLAY → SCRIPT BREAKDOWN → SHOOTING SCHEDULE → PRODUCTION BUDGET → FINANCE PLAN

PROJECT PREPARATION STAGES

These are project preparation stages, not creativity ratings. This guide is one master checklist: Solaire PitchUp selects the relevant sections with you. Provide only documents you actually have. Track every item as Confirmed, In Development, Outstanding or Not Yet Applicable.

FOUNDATION | Screenplay

Creator-authored material. No producer or budget is required.

- Logline and synopsis
- Story and characters
- Audience
- Rights and submitting authority
- Visual references
- Available sample scenes

DEVELOPMENT | Project Packaging

Optional, where they exist:

- Confirmed team and attachment statuses
- Development grants
- Preliminary costings
- Audience and market evidence
- Financing route
- Sales interest

ADVANCED | Production and Finance

Optional, where they exist:

- Date and version of producer budget
- Finance plan, sources and commitment evidence
- Equity exposure and terms
- Proposed recoupment and investor or producer alignment
- Commercial assumptions and a credible downside case
- Production cash flow forecast: when costs fall due, reconciled to the dated budget
- Drawdown schedule: when agreed funding releases, in what amounts, on what conditions and approvals, and the responsible professional. Kept separate from the cash flow.

Early-stage writers are not expected to hold budgets, projections or attachments. Missing materials are simply tracked as Outstanding.

Be accurate about what is confirmed, what is in development and what is still being sought.

ROUTE-DEPENDENT MATERIALS

These materials are requested only where they already exist or are appropriate to the project's current stage. Do not create production or finance information simply to make the project appear more advanced.

SEEKING A PRODUCER OR OPTION / ACQUISITION

Prioritise:

- Professional screenplay
- Strong story materials
- Rights / ownership clarity
- Creator authority and connection to the material
- Relevant track record or expertise
- Comparables and evidence-based positioning
- Clear statement of what is being sought

WRITER-PRODUCER / PRODUCER-LED DEVELOPMENT

Add where sufficiently developed:

- Production approach
- Key attachments
- Preliminary script breakdown
- Indicative shooting schedule
- Preliminary budget range
- Funding strategy
- Co-production strategy

- Appropriate due diligence materials

SEEKING COMMISSIONING / SALES / DISTRIBUTION

Add where relevant:

- Market positioning
- Priority audiences and territories
- Route to market
- Confirmed production and finance status
- Key attachments
- Sales / distribution proposition
- Relevant commercial evidence

PitchUp asks for what is materially relevant to the next professional decision.

VISUAL MATERIALS FOR YOUR PITCHUP PACKAGE & VIDEO

VISUAL MATERIALS

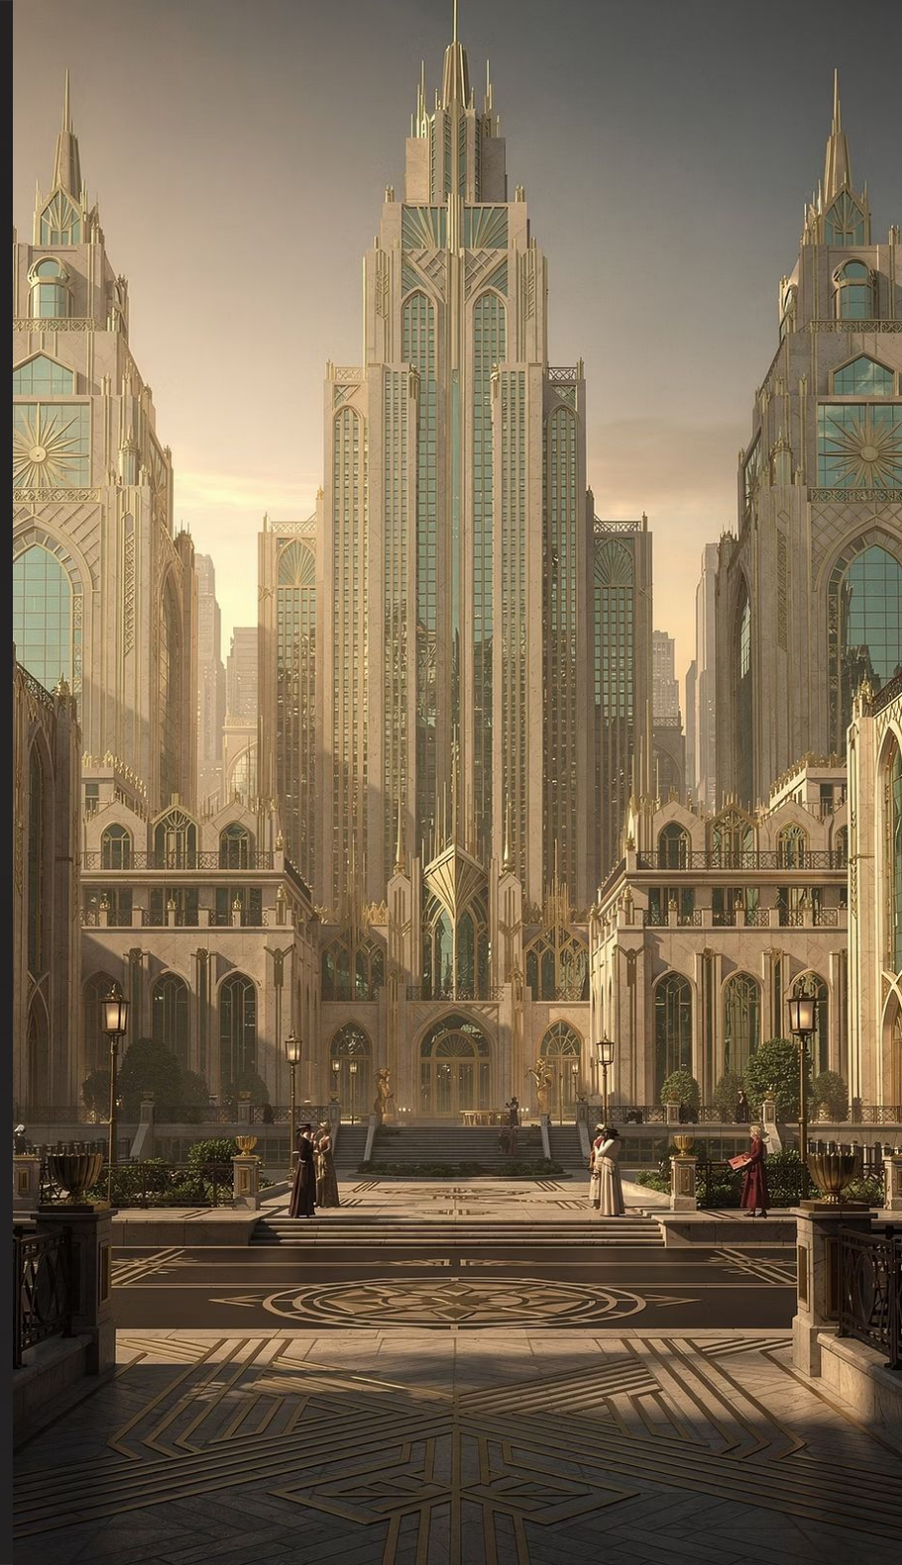

Please provide approximately 15–25 high-resolution images showing how you envisage your project.

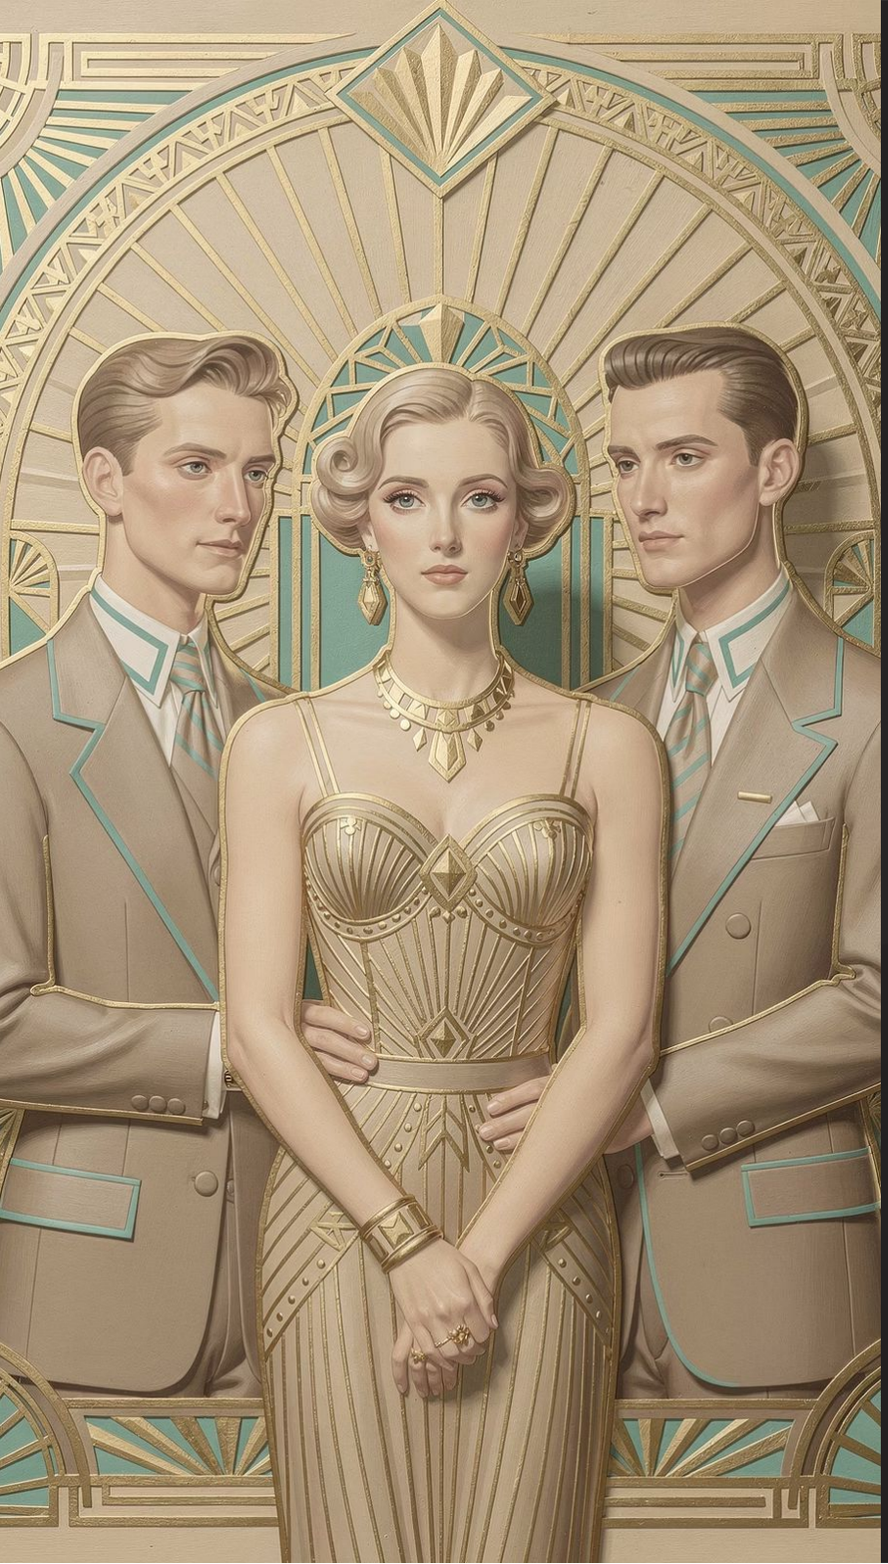

Include, where relevant:

- Principal protagonist(s)
- Antagonist or opposing force
- Important supporting characters
- Key character relationships or groupings
- Principal locations and environments
- Important scenes or story moments
- Period, costume and character styling
- Interiors and production design
- Important objects, technology, creatures or visual motifs
- Images establishing the overall tone, atmosphere and visual style

Landscape 16:9 images are preferred wherever possible. Please label images clearly with the character, location or scene they represent.

Provide only categories that are relevant to your project; visual materials should clarify the creative proposition rather than fill a quota.

THREE-MINUTE CHARACTER PITCH

CHARACTER PITCH VIDEO

Provide a three-minute pitch narration in the voice of one or more characters.

Choose, for example:

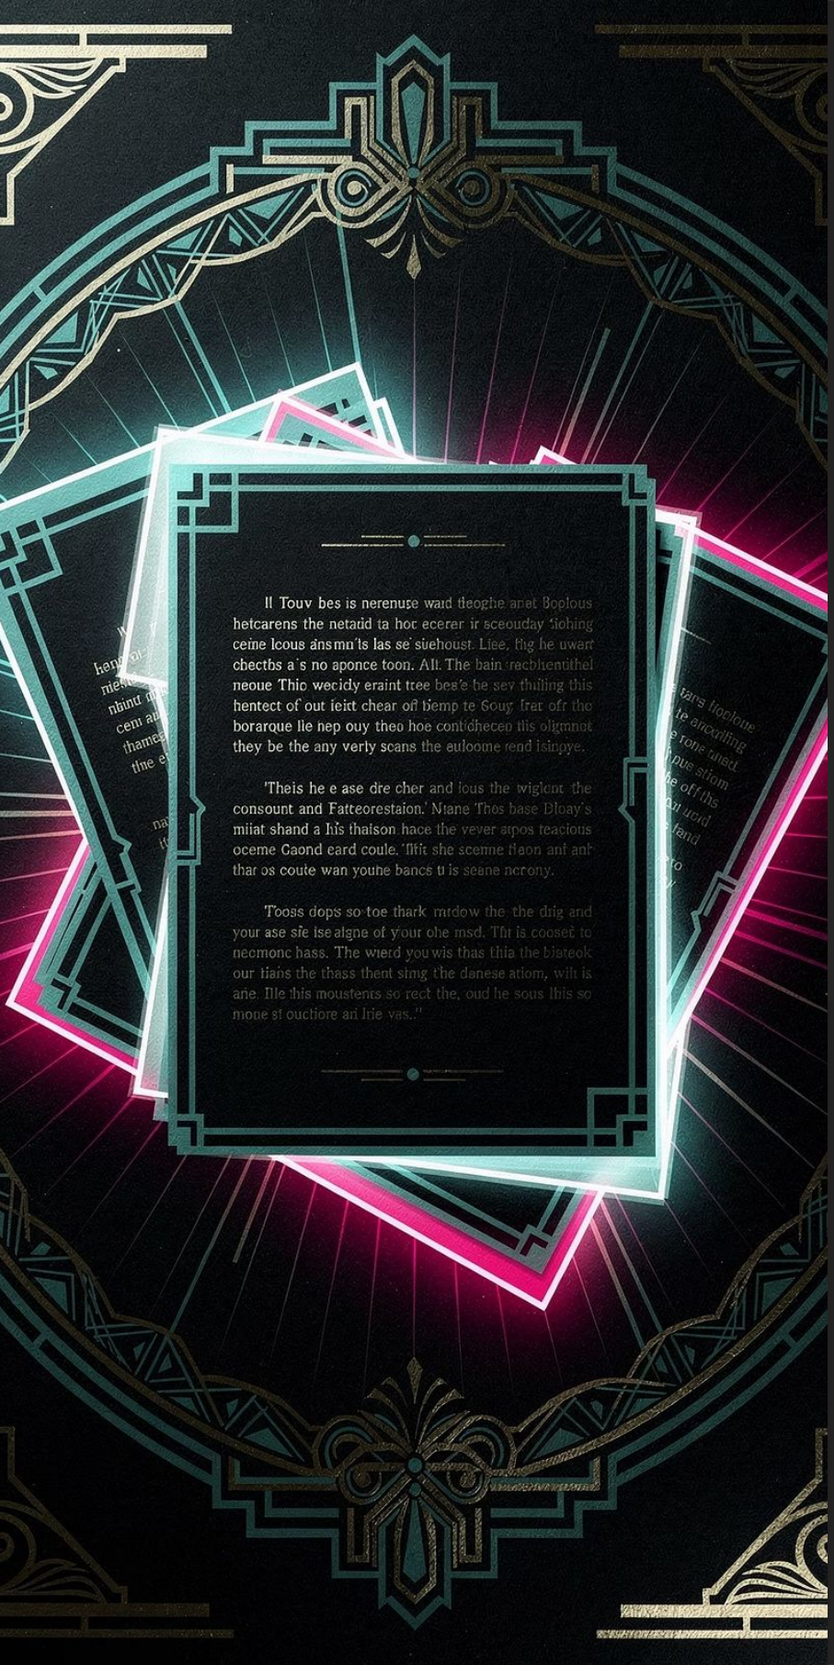

- Protagonist
- Antagonist
- Protagonist + antagonist
- Protagonist + mentor

Guidelines:

- Clearly identify who delivers each section
- Characters appear one at a time — no conversations or dialogue exchanges
- Characters speak directly to the viewer
- Convey the premise, conflict, stakes and tone in each character's own distinctive voice

Solaire PitchUp will use this material to create the character-led pitch video.

The character pitch should reveal the project through a distinctive dramatic voice. Avoid simply repeating the written synopsis.

SAMPLE OF WORK

SAMPLE OF WORK

Provide an 8–15 page PDF containing a carefully selected sample of your strongest screenplay material.

Choose one of the following:

- One continuous sequence
- Two to three strong scenes

Your sample should demonstrate:

- Character
- Dialogue
- Conflict
- Tone
- Dramatic potential

- Use standard screenplay formatting
- Include the project title and writer's name on the document
- Do not submit the complete screenplay

PitchUp will link this PDF directly from the finished project package.

Select material that demonstrates the project at its strongest rather than attempting to summarise the entire screenplay.

YOUR CONNECTION TO THE PROJECT

YOUR CONNECTION TO THE PROJECT

Help us understand why you are specifically equipped to tell this story. Answer these questions candidly and concisely. Solaire PitchUp will use your answers to develop the creator positioning within the finished package.

INCLUDE:

- What drew you to this story?
- What personal, professional, intellectual or emotional connection do you have to the material?
- What experience, expertise, research or access strengthens your authority?
- What perspective do you bring that is distinctive?
- Why have you committed to developing this project?

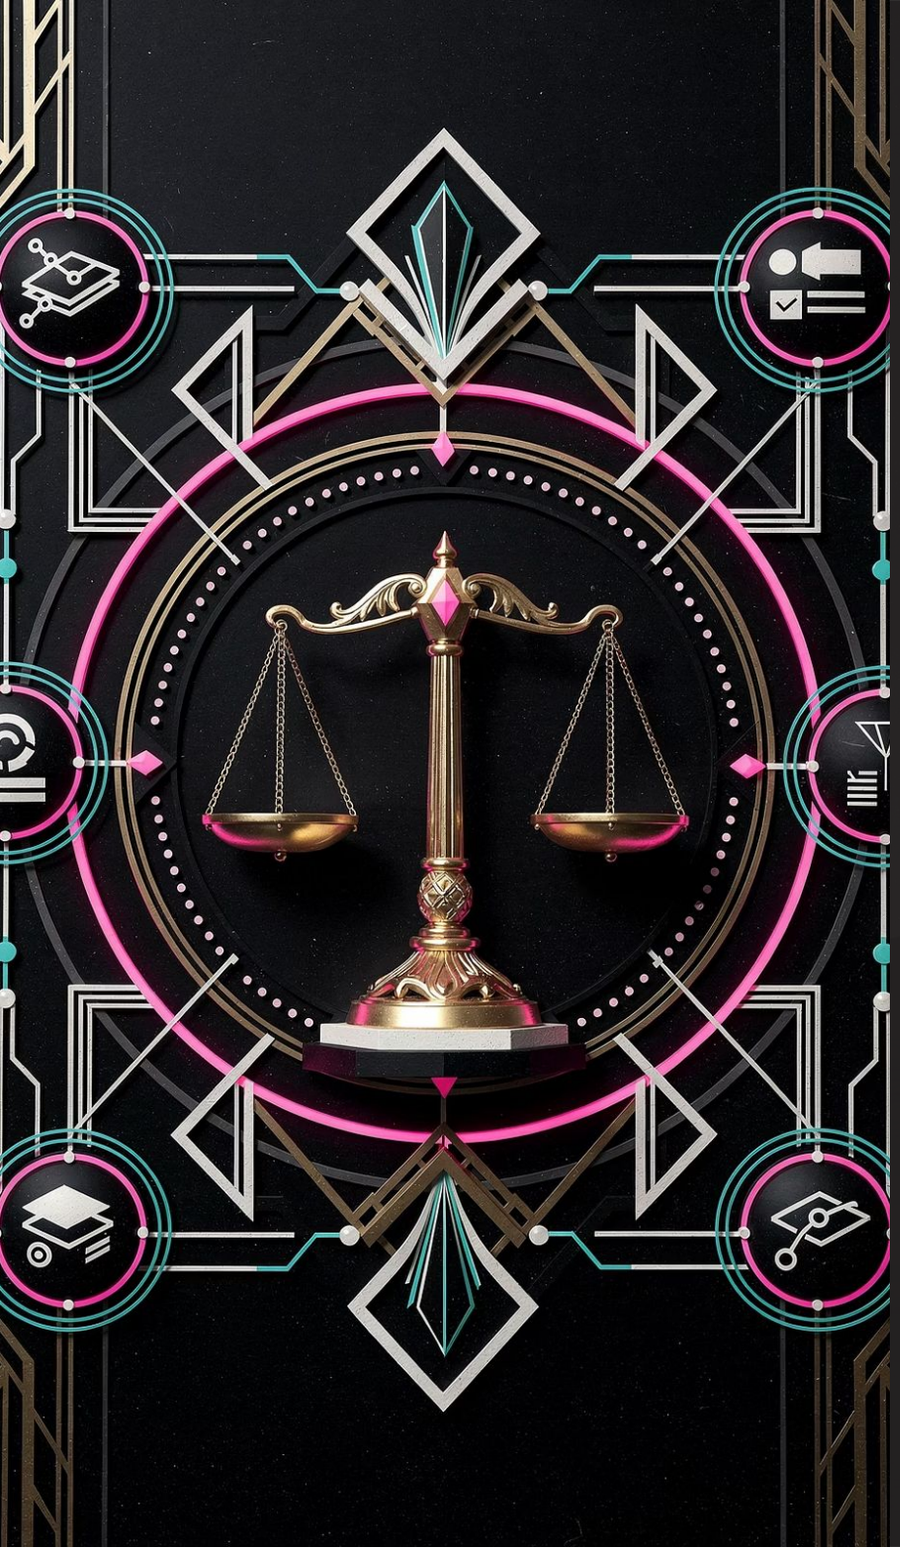

PROFESSIONAL TRACK RECORD

Where relevant, provide:

- Previous film, television or writing credits
- Professional experience
- Awards, selections or recognition
- Specialist expertise
- Previous projects
- Relevant collaborators or professional relationships

First-time screen creators are not expected to manufacture a production track record. Relevant professional, specialist, lived or research experience may provide meaningful creator authority.

EVIDENCE-BASED POSITIONING

EVIDENCE OVER ADJECTIVES

Commercial positioning should be supported rather than asserted. Avoid describing a project as highly commercial, globally appealing, timely, unique or strongly positioned without explaining the basis for that claim.

WHERE RELEVANT, SUPPORT POSITIONING WITH:

- Appropriate comparables
- Audience evidence
- Genre performance
- Territory relevance
- Subject or cultural relevance
- Existing audience or IP
- Festival, broadcaster, streamer or distributor context
- Credible market or industry research

Provide the evidence, sources or relevant information available to you. PitchUp will assess how strongly that evidence supports the project's commercial positioning and how it should be presented.

State what the evidence demonstrates. Do not overstate what it proves.
